Aftermatch on Sunday 5th February presents select flavours in minimal music: Sebastian Russell plays live, combining warm electronica sounds with minimal techno. A second live set is performed by Alex Fisher, the aftermatch host who is contributing elements of house to the selection.

Heading the bill of DJs are Lakuti, driving force behind the Süd Electronic label and Marco Shuttle, resident at Süd parties and host of Guerilla Lime and Soda. Further, Phiorio from London's newest netlabel Metroline Recordings, Pascal Opitz affiliated to Berlins Patentblau collective and Aftermatch's own Andy Sparks.

Aftermatch: every first Sunday of the month at the Gramophone, from 4pm-11pm. Entry is free for all.
